

Dynamic Updates

Because the information on this website is constantly changing as the NEESgrid progresses, a simple way to add news, documents, and other project updates has been created. New items can be entered with a simple online form, and the appropriate pages (for example, the working group page associated with a new report) will be updated automatically.

